INSTRUCTIONS.

1. This return shall be made by every citizen of the United States, whether residing at home or abroad, and by every person residing in the United States, though not a citizen thereof, having a net income of $3,000 or over, including dividends, for the taxable year, although the tax has been paid at the source and the return shows no tax liability.

2. This return shall be made by every nonresident alien receiving any net income from sources in the United States. A nonresident alien individual may receive the benefit of the personal exemption only by filing or causing to be filed with the Collector of Internal Revenue a true and accurate return of his total income, received from all sources, corporate or otherwise, in the United States.

3. When an individual by reason of minority, sickness, or other disability, or absence from the United States, is unable to make his own return, it may be made for him by his duly authorized representative.

4. This return should be filed with the Collector of Internal Revenue for the district in which the individual resides. In case the person resides in a foreign country then with the Collector for the district in which his principal business is carried on in the United States, and if there be no such place in the United States, then with the Collector of Internal Revenue at Baltimore, Maryland.

5. When the return is not filed within the required time by reason of sickness or absence of the individual, an extension of time, not exceeding 30 days from March 1, within which to file such return may be granted by the Collector, provided a written application therefor is made by the individual within the period for which such extension is desired.

6. An unmarried individual or married individual not living with husband or wife shall be allowed an exemption of $3,000. When husband and wife live together they shall be allowed jointly a total exemption of only $4,000 on their aggregate income. The head of a family shall be allowed an exemption of $3,000 in favor of each ward, but in no event shall a ward be allowed a greater personal exemption than $3,000 or, if married, $4,000, from the amount of net income received from all sources. There shall be allowed an exemption of $3,000 from the amount of the net income of estates of deceased persons during the period of administration or settlement, and of trusts or other estates the income of which is not distributed annually.

7. Amounts charged on line 32 for restoring property or making good the exhaustion thereof from its use in business, together with the amount claimed for depreciation on line 38, must not exceed the deterioration of the property in one year.
